

Code of Conduct

Schools in Action (SIA) apply the standards of the Fair Play Code to our events. We expect the following standards of behaviour from every person involved in the event; student, teacher, coach, administrator, official, volunteers or spectator.

Integrity

- Be honest, fair, reliable and transparent.
- Avoid conflicts of interest.
- Strive to earn and maintain community trust.
- Do not engage in or advocate possession or use of banned performance enhancing or illicit drugs.
- Do not participate in or encourage match-fixing, illegal sports betting or other corruption.

Respect

- Treat everyone in a considerate, objective and courteous manner.
- Refrain from any form of discrimination, harassment, bullying, abuse, intimidation, victimisation or vilification of others.
- Recognise and value the contribution of all.

Responsibility

- Accept the consequences of your actions.
- Be a positive role model.
- Comply with child safe standards.
- Understand the consequences of breaching the Code.
- Report breaches of the Code.

Fairness

- Play by the rules and spirit of the game.
- Be informed, consistent, impartial, just and reasonable.
- Be a 'good sport'.
- Provide a 'fair go' to people of all abilities.

Safety

- Provide a safe, welcoming and inclusive environment.
- Ensure equipment, facilities and programs meet standards.
- Support injury management, return to play and child safe standards policies.
- Show concern and caution for others. Immediately report any issues.

Breaches of the Code

Students, schools, officials, spectators or others found to have breached this code, may be removed from the event.

Feedback on this Code is welcomed by Schools in Action from participants. Please email events@schoolsinaction.com.au with suggestions to contribute to the further development of the Code.
