

Code of Conduct – School Walking Tours

Schools in Action (SIA) expect the following standards of behaviour from every person involved in a walking tour; students, teachers, school staff, tour guides or volunteers.

Integrity

- Be honest, fair, reliable and transparent.
- Avoid conflicts of interest.
- Strive to earn and maintain community trust.

Respect

- Treat everyone in a considerate, objective and courteous manner.
- Refrain from any form of discrimination, harassment, bullying, abuse, intimidation, victimisation or vilification of others.
- Recognise and value the contribution of all.

Responsibility

- Accept the consequences of your actions.
- Be a positive role model.
- Comply with child safe standards.
- Understand the consequences of breaching the Code.
- Report breaches of the Code.

Fairness

- Participate in the spirit of the walk.
- Be informed, consistent, impartial, just and reasonable.
- Provide a 'fair go' to people of all abilities.

Safety

- Provide a safe, welcoming and inclusive environment.
- Ensure equipment, facilities and programs meet relevant standards.
- Support child safe standards policies.
- Show concern and caution for others. Immediately report any issues.

Breaches of the Code

Students, teachers, school staff, schools, tour guides, volunteers or others found to have breached this code, may be removed from the tour.

Feedback on this Code is welcomed by Schools in Action from participants. Please email info@schoolsinaction.com.au with suggestions to contribute to the further development of the Code.
